DEDICATION

We, the annual staff of 1949, dedicate this edition of the Yellow Jacket to Mrs. H. Y. Parrot, who has been a true friend to every boy and girl in D. H. S.

As a member of the faculty, Mrs. Parrot has done conspicuous work in promoting, not only good English, but good will and good fellowship in our school.

SUPERINTENDENT B. McDANIEL

You are leaving school at a time when two ideologies are meeting throughout the world. Ours is the one which believes that the rights of the individual are of prime importance and that the State is the agent of the people. The other believes that the people are subservient to the State. That group has a burning missionary spirit and a determination to spread its doctrine throughout the world. Your generation is probably facing the most serious problem of the ages. You must find a way to settle the issue if mankind is to survive and to live in peace.

NORMA JEAN ESSARY
Secretary to the Superintendent

You are leaving high school to face the most restless world that the ages have known. It seems that a nation does not exist in which its citizens can count upon what the morrow may bring. Your generation will be called upon to bring order out of chaos. To you will come the challenge from all the world to stand up and convince humanity that you have the solution of turning unrest into peace and tranquility. To you will be given weapons more powerful for good and evil than any the sages of old ever dreamed. Take these weapons and use them for the good of humanity and lead ever forward to the time "when the war drum throbs no longer, and the battle flags are furled in the Parliament of man, the Federation of the world."

SENIOR CLASS

President Clifton Weaver
Vice-President Leon Savage
Secretary Lois Buford

To our deah fellow schoolmates:

Really, friends, we, the Senior Class, feel a hesitancy in leaving you at the end of this year to finish your education without a guiding hand suchas ours. We will, however, give you credit for rapid progress since your first appearance in Denison High.

To the Juniors, we wish to leave all the joy and happiness we have had as Seniors, and leave a charge for you to care for the lower classmen as we have so lovingly done. We also wish you to carry out the examples we have placed before you.

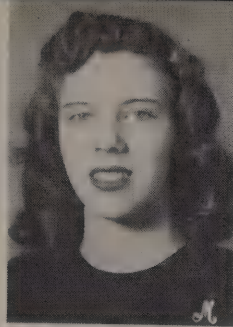

To the Sophs, we offer congratulations on the event of your becoming Juniors next year. We know you will not be so snobbish for you will be mere Jrs. instead of proud Sophs. We have one charge to make. Heretofore, the care of the Freshmen has been our task, but we now leave the job to you and hope that you will discharge the duties as we have done. It will be a hard job, for if the Fish of the coming year have deteriorated any further than these, the term fish will no longer be applied; they shall be called minnows.

As for you, our less educated friends (Freshmen) we don't understand how they expect you take care of yourselves in such a large building as D. H. S. Our warning to you is . . . although you may be inclined to be snobbish on becoming Sophs, it will be safer to keep your head down instead of up.

As a last word we charge all of you . . . our fellow schoolmates . . . to keep and honor the good name of D. H. S., to uphold every enterprise undertaken by the school, and to prove Denison Hi to be what it is . . . the greatest and dearest High School in any state.

LOOKING AHEAD IN 1900--or--THE CLASS PROPHECY

MARILYN WINFREE

Mary Aday, a worker it seems,
Is still working hard as a carnival queen.
Jackie Allen lives out of town,
And milks six cows before the sun goes down.
Geneva Allen now is a steno
She's now quite a gal, so I'm told—do you know?
Thelma Allen, that graceful dear,
Is now walking tight wires without a fear.
Bill Andrews, once a bass singer,
Now is renowned as an ice slinger.
Ruby Atwell true to her style,
A movie queen's been for quite a while.
Christine Barnard is a typical lawyer
And argues her cases like old Mr. Sawyer.
Jackie Barnes runs a filling station
And thinks his profession's the best in the nation.
In a quiet home we see Grace Barnhill,
Of society splashes she fast got her fill.
Carole Bates, of pleasing smile,
Is a Kress sales girl, now isn't that style?
Harold Bilderback is great big and hardy,
He still hangs around as the life of the party.
Jimmy Blankenship who was going to be a preacher,
Now works at school as an English teacher.
Herbert Bozarth, though sad to relate,
Is the worst kind of crook, ne'er listens to fate.
James Brannon with his big gruff voice
Bosses a section gang (from choice.)
Joan Bray, I'm sure you have heard,
Now writes poems, now ain't that absurd?
O. D. Bretches, that brilliant boy,
Now catches bugs which are his joy.
A rich lil' cookie is Betty Brown;
You can't say she didn't go to town.
Melvin Brown, they won't let him rest,
He rustles cows in the wild, woolly west.
Lois Buford, a famous "beauty,"
Is now in the movies; she thought it her duty.
He works for the opera, that's Ralph Burton,
Course all he does is draw the curtain.
James Carroll is now sailing the ocean,
Can't imagine where he got the notion.
The fans go wild when they see Dot Carter;
She works in the burlesque showing her garter.
Jimmy Cassidy, a Denison Cop,
In his handsome uniform, he's surely a fop.
A rich lil' gal is Louise Coats,
She found a design for a new kind of boat.
Patsy Cockburn married a farmer,
You see on a farm, nothing can harm her.
A smart financier was Ovid Cole,
But alas as and alik, he "went in the hole."
He plays with the Red Sox, that's Ken Cordell,
Wonder if he still plays football so well.
Ralph Covington now's a basketball wiz,
Plays with Ponies and a star he is.
Joe Cravens is a mighty athlete,
Who goes at his sports on capable feet.
Pat Crouch is taking tickets at the show,
When people "sneak" in, she doesn't let them go.
A great constructor is Gene Crouse,
Why he even built himself a nice house.
Joann Crow, a cute little lass,
Is still playing records, but natch—with class.
Van Cullar, the beau, is off to roam the world,
But his clothes are ragged (and his hair falsely curled.)
Bob Daniels is a great football star,
A second Knute Rockney, he's way above par.
A famous person is Bill Darr;
He went to Hollywood and became a star.
Margaret Daughtery, I'm sure you have seen,
Now reigning as the peanut queen.
Joyce Davis is a manicure girl,
In a beauty shoppe called "The Pearl."
June Dawson finally learned her shorthand
Now she sits on the lap of her "boss" man.
Alyce DeWees with the pretty sweet voice
Now sings on the stage it was her own choice.
Joe Duggan is an artist renowned
In a dark blue smock and tam he is gowned.
Delbert Duncan doesn't do much of anything;
He found gold in Alaska, boy did he sing!
Joanne Durham works in a beauty hall
She fixes your hair so that it will not fall.
Tied in an apron, we see Eleanor Eakin
She works in a sweet shoppe doin' the bakin.
Billie Elliot is a farmers wife
She does all her cutting with a carving knife.

Geraldine Epperson's a teacher at Austin College,
And there every day she displays her knowledge.
Jean Eubanks, who once dressed so classy,
Is now a cheery Salvation Army lassie.
Gloria Fawcett performs on the stage,
Just at present she's quite the rage.
Polly Fawcett, so graceful and small,
Has married a man that's quite tall.
Austin Fike is a great diplomat
But buys his meals at the automat.
Taylor Fuller now has become a strong man
In a vaudeville act, he's admired by each fan.
Robbie Garner, so alarming,
Now spends her time trying snake charming.
Jr. Gill is a baggage man;
He checks out the baggage as fast as he can.
Vivian Goynne, so sleek and so slim,
Does acrobatics to keep herself trim.
Betty Jo Graham, though she uses a book,
Works in a beanery as the chief cook.
Jimmie Gray keeps the books in a store
And when she gets through, she cries for more.
Now on a farm we see Gladys Gullett;
She's rich now 'cause she raises pullets.
Tommy Hairsine the big ole' lug,
Still gives all the girls a great big hug.
Clifford Hardy is running in style
The Peanut factory all the while.
Jerry Harlow, from the boxing family,
Kills all his victims with a double whammy.
Billy Jo Harris is now chief of police;
He yells at the burglars, "Oh cease, oh cease!!"
Wayman Harris is now a great drummer;
He works in the winter and loafs in the summer.
Billy Ray Hart, so I've heard tell,
Is Brous' assistant—well, well, well.
Eugene Henderson, whom we used to call poochie,
Has changed it now to "Smoochie poochie."
A rich banker is Jerry Henderson;
He's got rolls of money and maybe then some.
Robert Hendrick's a speaker of fame,
He goes about everywhere just on his name.
L. C. Henson is a first class teacher,
He teaches cards with the Voice of a preacher.
Donald Jo Hollingsworth is now a reporter,
He gets interviews from all, mayor to porter.
Opal Hock whose hair is in curls,
Punches the timeclock with the telephone girls.
As one well versed in press agent's dodges,
We recommend the astute Richard Hodges.
A radio announcer must have a big voice,
So "Peanut" Earl (Hollingsworth) is a favorite choice.
Home life now suits Dorene Hopper;
She lives like a queen; she married a copper.
Gaylene Huffman a fast little typist,
Is now canning fruits that are the ripest.
Fred Hughes is now the mayor of our city,
And pompously thinks he's sitting pretty.
Pat Hughes is a filling station man
And puts gas in cars as fast as he can.
Rex Hull is now sowing seeds
For crops which the world really needs.
Glenn Isaacs is known as the great loafer
Although he's still the same ole' joke.
Al Jekel, our tall classmate,
Is a famous inventor—now isn't that fate?
Charlie Jenkins—a dentist, fixes teeth
And is a master of causing grief.
Frances Jones, a congress woman has great fun,
She goes in for society in Washington.
A financier is Henry Jones,
Who grew very wealthy rolling "bones."
Helen Kelly is a very famous diva,
With hair as lovely as Lady Godiva.
Lawrence Kennon is a farmer now,
He can really grow things—and how!
A spunk little guy is James Kuykendall,
He now runs a famous dancing hall.
A clairnet player is Oscar Landmon,
Now he is a famous band-man.
A seaworthy gal is Mary Lou Lee;
She spends all her time fishing in the sea.
Patricia Legg, her brains got her someplace,
As geometry wizard, she startles the race.
Jack Linderman wanted to own a beanery,
But now spends his time viewing the scenery.
David Lewis is an ice cream king;
He sells it for 5c to all the wee-things.

SUMMARY

This year the Yellow Jackets had the best season in their history. They won 9 out of 13 games and got to the semi-finals, where they were beaten by Amarillo. Most of the games were close, with the Texarkana, the Kilgore, and the Breckenridge games being the closest. The Yellow Jackets beat Texarkana 14 to 13, and Kilgore beat them 7 to 6 in non-conference games. The Jackets won from Breckenridge in the quarter finals 7 to 6.

Four of the members of the team made all-district; Bob Daniels, Marvin, Vincent, and Mel Brown were placed on the first string and Leon Savage on the second string. Marvin Vincent made the first string all-state.

Bill Linden is now a matinee sheik
And rivals Clark Gable with his hair so sleek.

Arby Lorance is a mistress d'hotel;
She bosses the maids and cooks very well.

Newton McClain is a stern motor cop.
But doesn't arrest ladies who for signs do not stop.

Bill McMahan is a merchant of worth
His bank account rivals his waist in girth.

Tommy McManis is now playing Macbeth
His best work is done in the scene of his death.

Betty McMorris is a history wiz;
She can answer a question in any quiz.

Gradene McRae is dancing on Broadway;
And as a stage favorite she holds full sway.

She married a rich man, that's Mary Mears.
And now she's not in work to her ears.

A rich man is Billy Milburn.
He has lots of oil wells and a great big firm.

La Quita Monroe could sew very well.
So she makes clothes that surely are swell.

Billy Moore is a Dallas resident;
He's an influential man and a railroad president.

Marlene Moore has married an actor
And in his life she's the important factor.

Dear little redheaded Ruth Moore
Now has some children, is it seven or four?

Chad Morrison still big and strong
Now boxes champions and wins with a song.

Thomas Mosley true to his name,
As a novel writer, he's won lots of fame.

Our classmate "Woody" Paul Myers,
Is cleaning up fast in a wool dyers.

Buddy Nevil has a bright new car,
But the girls still follow this great movie star.

Joann Newland at last has become
A famous inventor—she's found a new gum.

A fat man now is Jack Nichols;
He got fat eating butter and pickles.

Bill Noltes' a regular "Speed demon"
For he drives his Chevie at 60 ? ? ? even.

Dorothy O'Dell has achieved some fame
As a newspaper reporter she has made a name.

Jimmy Palmer has made a name
By using his tongue in the hall of fame.

Patsy Parkes rose to renown
As the funniest, jolliest girl in town.

Our red-headed classmate, Yolanda Payne
Is playing Juliet in the Hall of Fame.

As a spender the name goes to Lonny Perry
He spends all his time making the girls merry.

Arthur Peterson is a banker slick
So all of his wife's clothes are really "chic."

Dave Phillips belongs to the Boston Red sox
And like Babe Ruth, lots of home runs he knocks.

Nelda Pitman, so modest an dsweet,
Fixes us up to look very neat.

Mary Powell now slings hash
In a quaint little place with some spunky dash.

Mary Alice Price, so fluent of tongue,
Is teaching Spanish to the young.

L. D. Quassa is a first class pear diver
And gets tipped each day—at least one "Fiver."

Jack Rawlins is a Senator from Texas;
He never votes on the laws that vex us.

Gloria Riley now slings the festive hash.
And really does it with a Valentino dash.

Johnny Riley from a trip to the moon has just come;
Ali about its beauties he keeps very mum.

Happily married we see Mary Louise Rogers
You see she married a Brooklyn Dodger.

Delores Russell, true to the name,
Has become an actress and achieved great fame.

Leon Savage is a true pirate sailor,
Wears crossbones and skull, and ne'er visits a tailor.

Hazel Scarborough at tennis is wranglin'
A close second to Suzanne Lenglen.

Inez Scoggins gone to far off Japan
She married a preacher, a wonderful man.

Joe Shires now directs a big band
He threw away his baton and now used his hand.

Margie Shires is a dietician grim
And bosses fat people to make them slim.

Mary Lou Short is a swimming instructor
Who boast that no one has ever ducked her.

Martha Sue Short, a school teacher staid,
But from the way things look, she's not an old maid!

A citrus dealer is Floyd Simmons;
He grows grapefruit, oranges, limes, and lemons.

Carol Ann Smith is a gentle housewife
And is happily settled for the rest of her life.

A doctor, like father, is Eddie Sneed;
He's always on hand to help those in need.

Joyce Spaugh is a classical dancer;
To the thrill of the violin she's a lively prancer.

Lillie Lee Steedman sells gowns that are chic
And gets plenty of money, now isn't that slick?

Now in a grocery store works Delma Tacker;
She wraps all the groceries and is called the "sacker."

Marion Taylor is a circus clown
And jumps through hoops in every town.

Helen Terrell is a writer of verses
And is paid so well that she holds two purses.

Diane Thomas can make us see better.
For she's an optician to the last letter.

Bill Thornton's a poet of style
Who brings tears to our eyes—or makes us smile!

Esther Thurman still strums the ivory keys
And makes sweet music that charms even the breeze.

John Tomlinson is a car demonstrator;
As a seller of cars, he's sure a first rater.

Bill Tracy now has joined the marines,
Before his mirror he struts and preens.

Marvin Vincent's another great star
In all his athletics he's way above par.

Peggy Vincent holds a big fat purse,
Is always efficient, a first class nurse.

Virginia Walton travels around
With a three ring circus that makes every town.

Marilyn Watkins, a sculptress of fame
In marble and bronze she has made a great name.

Betty Waymire does Spanish dancing;
She wears Spanish clothes and is very entrancing.

With the vigor and vim that he once slung dice,
Clifton Weaver now slings ice.

A successful manufacturer is Bob West
If you work for him, you never rest.

Georgia White is a famous skier
If you go up north, they'll let you see 'er.

Jerry Whitfill, once a sailor gay,
Has been an Admiral since last May.

Ethel Mae Whitley was not hard to find,
She's now a lady governor, the best of her kind.

Jimmy Wigzell won't you give ear?
Is a wealthy successful Engineer.

When the dancer Jo Wilkerson lifts her starry eyes,
The day dawns bright and the melancholy dies.

Taylor Willoughby is now our jailor,
He was elected as soon as he came home from Baylor.

Bob Wilson is a tooler of leather,
A funny thing is, he works in all weather.

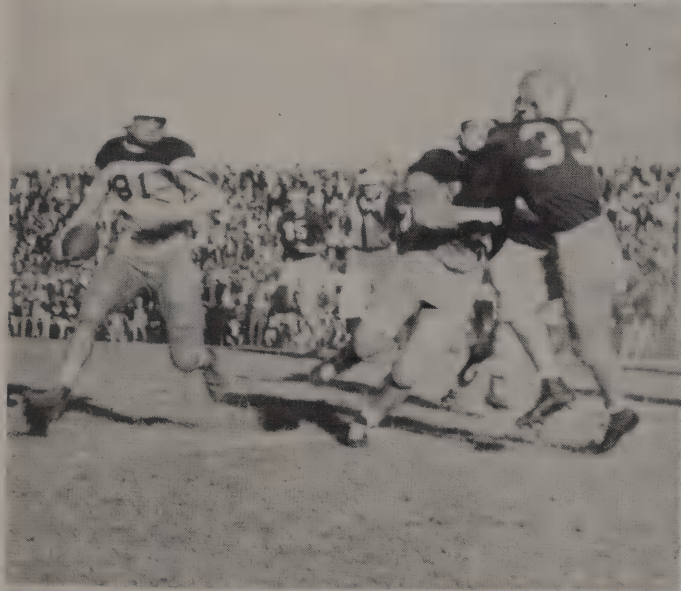

Claudine Wilson's a professor's wife,
She writes short stories about everyday life.

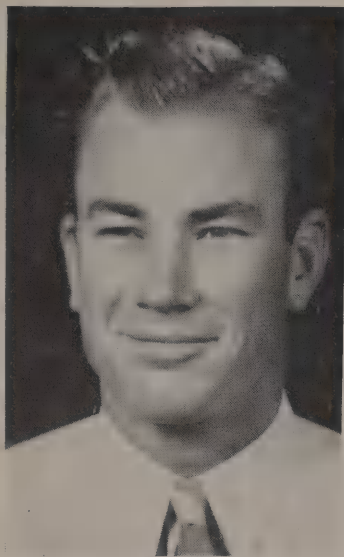

Marilyn Winfree has a Hamburger Inn,
And hands out pickles and onions like sin.

David Winter's a merchant of worth;
His bank account rivals his waist in girth.

Steward Wood has bought the Ford plant,
His time for merry making is very scant.

When the first roll call came, there were about half a hundred boys out to see the sport get under way. After the team was organized and the squad was cut, it looked as if the Jackets might have a fairly good team. They got off to a good start when they beat Denton in their first game 30-1 and in a return game 16-8. They beat Paris in the first conference game 6-1.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

COACH HELEN HODGES

The girls basketball team has had a successful season despite the fact it has lost 9 games and won only 6. Most of the games were close.

The girls won two trophies, one for second place in the Leonard tournament, one for fourth place in the Whitesboro tournament.

Letters will go to Ouida Ross, Betty Shaffer, Alice Ann Weideman, and Betty Graham, who also made all-tournament, at forwards. Guards to be lettered are Sue Nelle Campbell, Wanda Pace, Levonia Poole, Joan Howard, Margaret Bush, and Edna Hughes.

1st. row: Miss Helen Hodges, Wanda Pace, Alice Ann Weideman, Ouida Ross, Betty Shaffer.

2nd. row: Joan Howard, Betty Jo Graham, Margaret Bush, Sue Nelle Compbell.

3rd row: Edna Hughes, Tillie Ann Brown, Levonia Poole.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

TENNIS

Coach M. M. Marshall

The Denison High Yellow Jacket tennis boys played matches against Sherman, McKinney, Gainesville, Denton, Bonham, Paris, Greenville, Woodrow Wilson and Sunset of Dallas during the 1948-49 season. They won all of these series of matches. Southeastern College of Durant defeated the boys in two matches. Austin College players won two and lost two to the Jackets. In a local 5AA District Tournament Kenneth Lewis won the singles title, and Billy Ashburn and Jimmy Wigzell took the doubles trophies. Bobby Williford won the all-schoolboy tournament held for Denison boys last fall. Highland Park boys defeated the Jacket netmen in the District Meet at Denton. However, the Denison High School admires the way Billy Ashburn, Kenneth Lewis and Bobby Williford competed against the Dallas champions.

Kenneth Coen won the non-letterboy singles medal for the First Semester. Jimmy Wigzell, Noel Jennings, Terry Garland, Bob Watkins, Jerry Prideaux, and Bobby Marshall were regular players through both semesters. All of these players will return next year except Jimmy Wigzell, a graduating Senior.

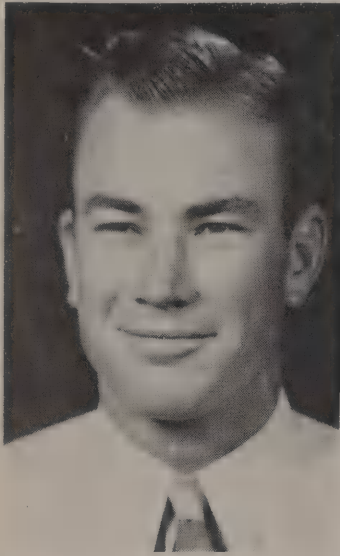

Billy Ashburn, Bob Watkins, Jerry Prideaux, Douglas Fletcher, Buddy King, Bill Coonrod, Terry Garland, Bob Jean Marshall, Warner Young, Bobby Williford, Otis Williams, Kenneth Lewis, Jimmy Wigzell, Ralph Covington, Kenneth Coen, Noel Jennings, Leroy Gailey.

Front Row: Ronnie May, Bob Daniels, Taylor Willoughby, Jack Linderman, Warner Young.

Second Row: Joe Duggan, Robert Leach, Mel Brown, Ross Hollingsworth.

He heard the toot but tried to scoot
And beat the choo-choo to it.
The poor galoot now twangs a lute
Take heed and don't you do it.

Joe Cravens: "Don't drive so fast around the corners. It frightens me."

Joann Newland: "Do what I do—shut your eyes when we come to a corner."

Ralph Burton: "Smile that way again."
Carole Bates blushed and dimpled sweetly.
Ralph: "Just as I thought— You look like a chipmunk."

Inez Scoggin: "Do you know what good clean fun is?"

Ted Bearden: "No, what good is it?"

After dinner speaker—I assure you that this was wholly unexpected on my part. If you will excuse my lack of preparation I would like to tell a story—

Quiet Voice from far end of table—Don't worry, you already have!

Tommy Hairsine: "Heard your girl quit you—s'matter—her old man come between you???"

"No, behind me!"

Doctor: (after reviving the patient) "How did you happen to take that poison? Didn't you read the sign on the bottle? It clearly said 'poison.'"

Patient: "Yes, Doctor, but I didn't believe it."

Doctor: "Why not?"

Patient: "Because right under it was another sign that said 'Lye.'"

YOUR DAILY NEWSPAPER

A dashing young fellow named Joe (Duggan)

Has lost all his happy glow,
He used to be sunny,
He had lots of money;
But that was two blonds ago.

Carol Smith: You ought to take chloroform.

Glenn Isaacs: Who teaches it?

In Twin's Park recently, baseball fans heaved a sigh of relief when one of their less popular umpires was called up for induction in the army. Their jubilation was short lived, however, when he was rejected.
The reason: Defective eyesight.

Mr. Gentry: When do leaves begin to turn?

Betty Steakley: The night before exams.

NEW ULTRA MODERN DEPARTMENT STORE

EVERYTHING FOR THE ENTIRE FAMILY

After giving the hired man a dressing down for being late in returning with supplies, the farmer demanded, "Okay, now let's hear how it happened."

"Well, I picked up a minister along the road," explained the hired hand, "and from then on, the mules couldn't understand a word I said."

While watching a ball game in Twins Park, my attention was distracted by the conversation of a couple behind me. The husband, who had been explaining the complexities of the game to his wife, suddenly remarked excitedly, "Look, we have a man on every base."

But dear, so has the other team," his wife countered.
